

Business telecom: the Autorité rejects the AOTA's complaint and announces the launch of an exploratory investigation

Published on January 23, 2020

The Autorité de la concurrence received a request for interim measures, ancillary to a complaint on the merits of the case, from the Association des Opérateurs Télécoms Alternatifs (AOTA) regarding Orange's practices in the deployment of optical fibre networks.

Par une décision rendue aujourd'hui, l'Autorité de la concurrence rejette pour absence d'éléments probants la saisine de l'AOTA. By a decision issued today, the Autorité de la concurrence rejects the AOTA's complaint for lack of evidence

The Autorité also announces the launching of an exploratory investigation into the business telecoms market.
